

ULTIMATE TOUR OF SCOTLAND & IRELAND

ITINERARY

DAY

1

DAY 1: ARRIVAL IN EDINBURGH

Make your way to your hotel in the Edinburgh city centre. Many travellers opt to take a taxi or use public transport, but for a more direct and comfortable ride, we will be happy to organise a private airport transfer for you. For those arriving early in the day, we recommend heading out and exploring the historic city, strolling through the Old Town and New Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. There are plenty of restaurants and bars to enjoy some warm Scottish hospitality, not to mention a taste of the local whisky.

Spend the night in Edinburgh.

Included: Entrance to Edinburgh Castle

HIGHLIGHTS: Calton Hill - Edinburgh - Edinburgh Castle - Edinburgh New Town - Edinburgh Old Town - Scotland - The Grassmarket - The Royal Mile & St Giles Cathedral

2

DAY 2: DAY AT LEISURE IN EDINBURGH

You have the full day to explore Edinburgh at your leisure. The background and history of the city is fascinating and rich, so there is no shortage of UNESCO World Heritage Sites, museums and landmarks to visit, including the majestic Edinburgh Castle and Holyrood Palace, the official Scottish residence of Queen Elizabeth II. You can easily travel around the city centre on foot, so we recommend strolling along the historic Royal Mile or walking to Castle Hill for a spectacular view of the city.

Spend another night in Edinburgh.

DAY 10: MEGALITHIC NEWGRANGE & SCENIC LANDSCAPES

Start your road trip towards Northern Ireland. Your first stop is the charming 12th-century Malahide Castle. Visit the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Newgrange, where you can see megalithic passage tombs which are believed to be older than the Great Pyramids of Egypt. This is one of Ireland's most popular and fascinating attractions. Next, stop to admire the high crosses of Monasterboice, the historic ruins of a Christian settlement. Cross into Northern Ireland to reach the capital Belfast.

Spend the night in Belfast.

Driving distance: 195 km / 121 miles

Estimated driving duration: 3 hours (without stops)

HIGHLIGHTS: Belfast - Malahide Castle - Monasterboice - Newgrange

DAY

DAY 11: DISCOVER BELFAST

Today you have a full day to explore Belfast, an exciting city with a mix of Victorian grandeur, industrial grit and living history. Don't miss out on the city's leading attraction, the Titanic Belfast. Experience the story of the world's largest and most luxurious ship, which was constructed in Belfast in 1909. You can also see the Peace Walls and their famous murals, admire the architecture of the City Hall, or opt to visit the Ulster Folk museum, a complete recreation of an early 1900s traditional Northern Irish town.

Spend another night in Belfast.

HIGHLIGHTS: Belfast - Belfast City Hall - Belfast Peace Walls - Titanic Belfast - Ulster Folk and Transport Museum

DAY 12: GIANT'S CAUSEWAY & ANTRIM COAST

Explore the beautiful Antrim Coast. First, pass by the atmospheric Dark Hedges, a Game of Thrones filming location. Then, enjoy a scenic coastal walk at Carrick-a-Rede to cross its rope bridge swaying 30m above the sea and providing stunning views of the cliffs below. The highlight of the day is the jewel of Northern Ireland and World Heritage Site, the Giant's Causeway, with its iconic basalt columns. Nearby, visit Bushmills Distillery the world's oldest whiskey distillery. We also recommend stopping for a view of the breathtaking, medieval ruins of Dunluce Castle, located by dramatic coastal cliffs.

Spend the night in the Donegal area.

Driving distance: 257 km / 160 miles

Estimated driving duration: 4.5 hours (without stops)

DAY 13: WILD ATLANTIC WAY & CLIFFS OF SLIEVE LEAGUE

Today, you will get your first taste of the iconic Wild Atlantic Way route, a journey past soaring cliffs, buzzing towns, epic bays and hidden beaches. Your first stop is Glenveagh National Park where you'll explore towering mountains, lakes, valleys and woodlands. Drive past the imposing Mount Errigal and over the winding Glengesh Pass to Glencolumbkille, one of Ireland's best living-history museums. Then experience breathtaking views at the imposing cliffs of Slieve League, which, at 600m, are some of the highest marine cliffs in Europe. Alternatively, you can enjoy a leisurely day in Donegal.

Spend another night in the Donegal area.

Driving distance: 223 km / 138 miles

Estimated driving duration: 4.5 hours (without stops)

HIGHLIGHTS: Glencolumbkille village - Glenveagh National Park - Slieve League cliffs

DAY 14: RUGGED COASTLINES & STONE AGE SITES

Head south to County Sligo, driving past the stunning Ben Bulbin, perhaps one of Ireland's most recognisable mountains. Visit the small fishing village of Mullaghmore with its lovely sandy beach. Here, you'll find Mullaghmore Head, one of the signature discovery points along the Wild Atlantic Way. We also recommend a visit to the atmospheric Carrowmore, Ireland's largest Stone Age cemetery where you can roam around megalithic tombs and stone circles. Continue your drive to Downpatrick Head to enjoy a walk along the majestic sea cliffs and take in the vast views of the rugged coastline.

Spend the night in the Westport area.

Driving distance: 241 km / 150 miles

Estimated driving duration: 4 hours (without stops)

HIGHLIGHTS: Benbulbin - Carrowmore Megalithic Cemetery - Downpatrick Head - Mullaghmore Head

15

DAY 15: ACHILL ISLAND

Explore the charming town of Westport, dotted with delightful shops, cafés and pubs. Tour the Georgian mansion Westport House and stroll around the beautiful gardens. You can also choose to visit the remote and beautiful Achill Island. Connected to the mainland by a bridge, you can follow the Wild Atlantic Way around the island. Admire the views from the top of Minaun Heights and stop at the beautiful bays of Keel and Keem with their white sandy beaches and clear waters. We also recommend stopping by Slievemore, an abandoned village with the ruins of traditional stone cottages.

Spend another night in the Westport area.

Driving distance: 149 km / 93 miles

Estimated driving duration: 3 hours (without stops)

HIGHLIGHTS: Achill Island - Westport

DAY 16: CONNEMARA NATIONAL PARK

Visit the striking region of Connemara with its landscapes characterised by rugged mountains, white sand beaches, picturesque lakes and heathlands. Stop by Killary harbour, Ireland's only true fjord with a length of 16km (9.9miles). Further along, visit Kylemore Abbey where you can admire spectacular Gothic architecture and take a stroll in the Victorian Walled Garden.

Stop by the Connemara National Park Visitor Centre to follow scenic walking trails. Drive the circular Sky Road near Clifden for broad views of the Atlantic and arrive in Galway, a lively and colourful city.

Spend the night in the Galway area.

Driving distance: 182 km / 113 miles

Estimated driving duration: 3.5 hours (without stops)

HIGHLIGHTS: Clifden - Connemara National Park - Galway - Glassilaun Bay - Killary Harbour - Kylemore Abbey

17

DAY 17: GALWAY & ARAN ISLANDS

Enjoy the Galway area at your leisure. We highly recommend taking a ferry to the Aran Islands. These three windswept islands are one of the few places where the Gaelic language, culture and music still truly thrive. At the island of Inis Mór, opt for a traditional horse & carriage tour, the most popular way to get around. Don't miss the prehistoric fort Dun Aengus overlooking the Atlantic. The ideal way to end the day is to visit one of Galway's restaurants, join in with the locals and experience traditional live music.

Spend another night in the Galway area.

Driving distance: 76 km / 47 miles

Estimated driving duration: 2.5 hours (without stops)

HIGHLIGHTS: Aran Islands - Dun Aengus

DAY 18: CLIFFS OF MOHER & LIMESTONE LANDSCAPES

Start the day by visiting Dunguaire Castle. Sitting on a rocky outcrop overlooking Galway Bay, it is one of the most photographed castles in Ireland. Further ahead, explore the unique, lunar-like landscape of The Burren. Here you can visit the iconic portal tomb Poul nabrone Dolmen, one of Ireland's oldest megalithic monuments.

Next stop is the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher, Ireland's top tourist attraction, showcasing some of the country's most iconic coastal scenery. On a sunny day the views are expansive, but even a stormy day can be exhilarating with the powerful Atlantic below.

Spend the night in the Doolin/Lisdoonvarna area.

Driving distance: 111 km / 69 miles

Estimated driving duration: 2.5 hours (without stops)

HIGHLIGHTS: Cliffs of Moher - Doolin - Kinvara & Dunguaire Castle - Poul nabrone Dolmen - The Burren

19

DAY 19: MEDIEVAL CASTLES & KILLARNEY NATIONAL PARK

Start the day visiting the 15th-century Bunratty Castle. Here you'll also find the Bunratty Folk Park, where you can experience Irish rural life from the 1800s. We then recommend stopping at Adare, one of Ireland's prettiest villages with its thatched cottages housing craft shops and restaurants. In the afternoon, explore Killarney National Park set beneath Ireland's highest mountains. You can visit the 19th-century mansion of Muckross House, take an optional Jaunting Car tour of the park or a boat trip on the peaceful Lough Leane, departing from the medieval Ross Castle.

Spend the night in the Killarney/Tralee area.

Estimated driving duration: 3.5 hours (without stops)

HIGHLIGHTS: Bantry House - Cork - Garnish Island - Glengarriff - Kinsale

23

DAY 23: ANCIENT CASTLES & THE BLARNEY STONE

This morning, you can visit Blarney Castle, a legendary medieval stronghold that houses the Blarney Stone, surrounded by many myths and tales. Then we recommend stopping at the photogenic harbour town of Cobh. It is known as the last port of call of the Titanic in 1912! Continue to Cashel, where you can visit the spectacular Rock of Cashel, one of Ireland's most visited attractions. The site offers a fantastic collection of medieval buildings that span over 1000 years of history. Later, drive to Kilkenny, a medieval town nestled around a majestic 12th-century castle.

Spend the night in the Kilkenny area.

Driving distance: 208 km / 129 miles

Estimated driving duration: 3 hours (without stops)

HIGHLIGHTS: Blarney Castle - Cobh - Kilkenny - Rock of Cashel

DAY
24

DAY 24: THROUGH THE WICKLOW MOUNTAINS TO DUBLIN

If you wish to spend more time exploring Dublin, you can head straight to the city this morning.

Alternatively, we highly recommend a drive through the scenic Wicklow Mountains to take in the beautiful views. In the area you could visit Glendalough, a 6th-century monastic settlement, and the Powerscourt Estate, featuring the restored mansion Powerscourt House. On the estate, you will find Ireland's highest waterfall as well as magnificent gardens. Back in Dublin, enjoy the rest of the evening at your leisure, perhaps with a fine Irish dinner to top off your amazing journey.

Spend the night in Dublin.

Driving distance to Dublin: 123km / 77 miles

Estimated driving duration: 2 hours (without stops)

Driving distance via Wicklow Mountains: 165km / 102 miles

Estimated driving duration: 3 hours (without stops)

HIGHLIGHTS: Dublin - Powerscourt House & Gardens - Wicklow Mountains & Glendalough

DAY 25: DEPARTURE

To get to Dublin Airport, you can take a taxi, or we can arrange a convenient private transfer directly from your hotel. If your flight is in the afternoon, you can use the morning to enjoy some last-minute shopping, visit one of the many attractions or simply relax and take in the atmosphere of the city one last time.

Whatever your needs, we are here to help. If you have any questions about our packages or services, please do not hesitate to contact us.
